

STANDARD OIL LOSES APPEAL IN MISSOURI OUSTER

U. S. Supreme Court Upholds
Decision Against the Trust's
Indiana Branch.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—By a sweeping opinion to-day the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the Missouri Anti-Trust statutes and affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court of Missouri in ousting the Standard Oil of Indiana and its subsidiary corporations, the Republic Oil Company and the Waters-Pierce Company, from doing business within the State. The $50,000 fines imposed upon each company by the Missouri courts were affirmed.

The suit decided to-day was the biggest trust busting attempt so far undertaken by the State of Missouri under its anti-trust laws.

It began on March 22, 1905, with the filing of a suit by the then Attorney-General H. S. Hadley (subsequently Governor) in the Supreme Court of Missouri, alleging a gigantic conspiracy between the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, the Republic Oil Company, and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company to suppress all competition within the State. It was declared that these three companies had succeeded by improper competitive methods in destroying independent concerns and had an absolute monopoly of the oil business in the State.

The bill asked forfeiture of the charters of these corporations, ousting of them from the State, and, in the case of the Waters-Pierce Company—a Missouri corporation—its dissolution. It was alleged that between 1901 and 1905 the three corporations had formed a conspiracy to monopolize petroleum trade and had divided the State into sections where each controlled the business. The concerns posed as independents.

On Dec. 22, 1905, the Supreme Court of Missouri in a vigorous opinion sustained practically every contention of the State.

The Court accepted the line from the Waters-Pierce Company and granted a suspension of the decree enjoining them from doing business.

Meanwhile the Standard and Republic companies asked a rehearing. Their petition was overruled. They then appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, alleging unconstitutionality of the Missouri anti-trust laws.

MAYOR AT CHURCH DINNER.

Pastor and Congregation to Honor
City's Executive at Banquet,
April 11.

Mayor Gaynor is to be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given by the pastor and congregation of the Grace M. E. Church on One Hundred and Fourth street April 11. The dinner will take place at the Hotel Marquette, Broadway and One Hundred and Third street.

The Rev. Dr. Christian P. Reimer, pastor of the church, recently eulogized the Mayor for his work in police and civic reforms. The Reverend made his remarks to his congregation. The Mayor wrote a letter in return, thanking the clergyman. Then the clergyman suggested the banquet in honor of the Mayor. The congregation readily assented and a committee has completed arrangements for an elaborate spread.

Style Notes by Madame Louise

THE OTHER DAY I ran over to the Queen Quality factory in Boston. I was amazed at its size.

IMAGINE A PLANT seven stories high, covering 13 acres of floor space, employing 4,600 workers, and you will get some idea of the home of Queen Quality Shoes.

EVERYTHING that could contribute to the health, happiness and comfort of the workers has been introduced—for this is a modern factory in fact as well as name.

THEY HAVE recreation rooms for the workers, including bowling, billiards, reading room and dance hall. Also a restaurant and an emergency hospital with a doctor and trained attendants.

THEIR MANAGER TOLD ME that the capacity was 17,000 pairs of shoes daily—5,000,000 a year—think of it!

SUCH A SUCCESS would have been impossible had they not given the women of America the best in footwear.

THE RESULT of all this may be seen at the Queen Quality Boot Shop. Here you will find the most beautiful assortment of footwear in the city, all at the popular prices of $3.50 to $5.00.

We have just finished mounting, in our own workshop, a particularly beautiful collection of La Valliere Pendants, Pendant Earrings and other pieces of artistic jewelry made up from our own designs, and using our own diamonds. Just Six Weeks Ago These Original Model Gowns, Suits and Wraps Made Their Debut at the Dressmakers' Opening in Paris

Arrived in America Not Quite Four Weeks Ago—This, the Largest Collection Imported By Any One Establishment This Season

Now We Shall Dispose of This $30,000 Paris Model Collection for $18,000

We might say that these are the most genuine savings ever presented, for they afford the opportunity of saving anywhere from one-third to one-half (and in some instances more) of the original prices of these models, while their newness is the talk of the fashion world. And do you realize that this opportunity is presented just as the Spring social season is still in anticipation?

Worth Model—$175, was $350

Francis Model—$175, was $350

Among these several score models there is—

Paquin's masterpiece—a gown superb enough for a Queen. It was $1200, now $375.

The Panier as interpreted by Worth, Paquin, Callot, Francis and the other Parisian dressmakers who endorsed it—is here in evening and afternoon gowns.

Paul Poiret's newest creations in both gowns and wraps again sound his admiration for things Oriental.

Whether you select a Tailored Suit by Bernard, Bechoff-David, Beer, Drecoli or Martial et Armand, you will feel satisfied that it is unique and distinctive.

These models, which also include the new modes by Agnes, Doucet and Margaine Lacroix, brought to us new laurels in our Fashion Exhibition—"La Promenade des Toilettes." And as we have had some of the models reproduced or adaptations made from them, we feel justified in disposing of them at this early date.

Prices average from $105 to $375, originally $215 to $1200.

Also a few imported Frocks of sponge and silk at $37.50 to $175, were $75 to $250.

Gimbel Tailored Suits for Women and Young Women—$25, $29.50, $35, $40, $45 and $50—Are the Talk of New York. Why?

First, because they are reproductions and adaptations of the newest and most approved models by Drecoli, Francis, Bernard, Poiret and Bechoff-David.

(That these Suits excel in this particular may be judged from the fact that we introduced the reproduction idea to New York—therefore we have made a study of it and have every facility for making such Suits most successfully.)

Second, because selection includes more than a hundred distinct models in taffeta, French serge, whipcord, novelty and men's-wear fabrics—even taffeta in the $25 Suits for women.

Third, because these Suits have been made by the best tailors in New York—and are custom made and hand-sewn in all the vital parts.

Sizes for women, 34 to 44; and up to 53 in some models; for young women, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years. Other models at $55 to $350.

An Easter Exposition of Untrimmed Hats

The Best Hats of Europe and America in Complete Selection

If you want a style that is enjoying the zenith of its vogue, or one that is very unusual, or a quite conservative style—you are certain to find it here, for this collection is the largest in New York.

Not for a long while has there been such variation, both in the materials and styles of hats—and we have them all.

In shapes alone there are more than 250 styles—some with novelty edgings and flanges or facings of hemp, velvet and numerous straw braids.

To give you an idea of the kinds of straws and other materials we shall enumerate the dominating hats:

Milan	Neapolitan	Tuscan
Eponge	Chiffon	Maline
Patent Milan	Leghorn	Noboka
Ramie	Yedda	Belgian
Sennil	Panama	Formosa
Curacao	Manila	Java
Peanut	Mackinaw	Silk

Hundreds of Black Hats, for again these are great favorites. White is in second place, as is also its rival—black-and-white. Then, too, there are all the new colors in nearly every style—Marie Louise blue, Empire and Poiret green, gray, amethyst, purple, gold, sand, string, bronze, brown, navy and King's blue, primrose red, cerise and cardinal.

These Hats are for women, young women and children, and prices range all the way from $1.25 to $18.75.

$8 Panama Sailors at $5

Picturesque in their severity, for their large roll brims have such excellent lines—and are semi-soft finished. These are of that particular quality of Panama known as Seiki, which is made of a grass grown in Japan. Illustrated, but untrimmed at $6.

$5 Small Panama Sailors, $2.75

The only difference in these Seiki Panama Hats is that they are in small close-fitting shapes for girls and young women.

White Italian Bleach Peanut Hats, $1.50

These Sailors are just for the younger generation. Blocked, and the edges are carefully bound.

At Your Command—The No-Charge Trimming Service

providing you purchase an Untrimmed Hat and its Trimmings in either our Third or Main Floor Millinery Sections.

This House Dress—a Tunic Style—Is $3.75

But the tunic has been modified to make the dress thoroughly practical; it overlaps and is stitched to a foundation banding of plain color chambray. This makes it very effective, as the dress is of striped gingham.

Its sailor collar and one large revers are inlaid with the chambray, and outlined with piping of a contrasting color—American beauty on those of black-and-white, white on the blue-and-white striped Dresses.

Other new styles in House Dresses at $1.50 to $4.50.
